

Greetings to Boris Johnson, UK Prime Minister

The Israel Britain Chamber of Commerce congratulates the UK Prime Minister Mr. Boris Johnson on his election victory.

The business community in Israel has full confidence that business and investments will get further reinforced focus and priority and wishes the UK a swift exit from the EU.

The IBCC joins the voice of the BCC, the umbrella organization of British Chambers in the UK and globally, calling for continuing strong trade relationship with the EU and other markets.

The IBCC supports the BCC's agenda including "Restoring business, investor and consumer confidence – and firing up the economy".

Israel - UK trade and business relationships are growing constantly and on behalf of the Israel Britain business community, we wish people and Businesses in both countries more fruitful cooperation, progress, and prosperity.

The Israel-Britain Chamber of Commerce
